

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County
MOOSUP

Young Men's Class Provides Electric Lighting For Methodist Parsonage—Funeral of Mrs. Butcher.

Several members of Class Number Two, Rev. Arthur Withee's class, and two members of Miss Priscilla Matthews' class, met at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday evening for a social occasion. The occasion was a social occasion for the completion of the electric light system recently installed in the parsonage by the young men. A luncheon was served consisting of fish chowder, sandwiches, apple pie, hermit, cheese, coffee, nuts, and apples. The class members of the St. Patrick's day order and on each was a brief rhyme setting forth the share each had had in the work connected with the lights. At each plate was a sprig of living shamrock. After luncheon the guests made a tour of inspection of the light system. The young men and Miss Priscilla Matthews, who had been in the work, were complimented by the young men. The young men and Miss Priscilla Matthews, who had been in the work, were complimented by the young men. The young men and Miss Priscilla Matthews, who had been in the work, were complimented by the young men.

FUNDAL

Mrs. Lydia M. Butcher. Friday, March 12th, Mrs. Lydia M. Butcher died at the age of seventy-one.

Mrs. Butcher was born in Voluntown Sept. 27, 1843, a daughter of George T. and Silas M. (Hazard) Sheldon, a granddaughter of Thomas Cranston and Lydia (Walker) Hazard, a great-granddaughter of Edward an dSarah (Cranston) Hazard, and a great-granddaughter of George Hazard, the first mayor of Newbury, R. I. She was a direct descendant of Thomas Hazard who came to America in 1635, of Samuel Cranston of Rhode Island, her great-grandfather, Edward Hazard marrying Sarah Cranston, the daughter of Governor Samuel Cranston.

March 6, 1864, she became the wife of Joseph J. Butcher. They had one child, G. Annie, wife of John J. Bennett. Soon after her marriage she came to this town which has since been her home. She was one of the oldest members of the Baptist church here, having united under the pastorate of Rev. J. P. Brown years ago. She was also a member of the W. C. T. U. and of the Ladies of the Good Will and during her residence in Plainfield was active in grange matters.

She is survived by one daughter, and two grandchildren, her adopted son, Gertrude and Arthur C. Anderson, and by three brothers, James A. Sheldon, William H. Sheldon, and George H. Sheldon. The funeral was held from the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by the pastor Rev. E. L. Loomis. A quartette, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Mack C. Mott sang "Some Time We'll Understand," and "Shall We Gather at the River." The flowers were given by the G. A. R. We present in a body and the latter conducted the service.

There were many beautiful floral offerings, including a wreath from the Ladies of the G. A. R.

Burial was in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery, the bearers being Mack C. Mott, Wm. C. Hill, Frank Miller, Alfred Hill, James Pellet and Alvah Pierce. At the grave the funeral service was read by Rev. E. L. Loomis and the benediction pronounced by Rev. A. H. Withee. Among those who attended were Rev. A. H. Withee, Mrs. E. L. Loomis, Mrs. E. L. Loomis, and Mrs. E. L. Loomis.

Pink Party. Miss Ethel Parkhurst celebrated her twentieth birthday, giving a pink party to her Sunday school class and her music students at her home on Tuesday evening. The house was decorated in pink. Miss Parkhurst was crowned in pink. About seventeen young people were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Dr. W. H. Sargent has been seriously ill for the past two weeks with grip and bronchitis.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Sargent had a slight attack of pneumonia followed by the grip she is now convalescing and able to attend to her duties.

Recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. Sargent are Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Davis of Providence, R. I., Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Cutler of Bridgewater, Mass., and Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Legge, formerly of Whitman, Mass.

WINDHAM

Birthday Party for Earl Potter—Brush Fire Burns Over Several Lots.

Mr. and Mrs. John Potter gave a party Wednesday afternoon to celebrate the third birthday of their son Earl. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richmond, Elizabeth Webster, Cutler Potter and Russell Fisher. Games were played and a dainty lunch, including birthday cake, was served.

Lots Burned Over. There came near being a serious fire on Monday morning when a brush fire started by Mr. Geo. got away from him into the grass and burned over two or three lots before being extinguished by the fire department.

Supple at Sixty. Age and ripe experience mean happiness and usefulness when mental and bodily powers are preserved by keeping rich blood in the veins.

Nature's great strength-sustaining nourishment in Scott's Emulsion creates rich blood while it warms the body and alleviates rheumatic tendencies. Its oil-food imparts strength to both body and brain.

It is Nourishment—not Alcohol.

SCOTT & BOWNE, WOODFORDVILLE, ILL.

BROOKLYN.

Joseph Belanger Fined for Selling Ale to Minors at the Women's Club—Woodland Fires.

Oscar F. Atwood has sold to his brother-in-law, Frank L. Martin, of Providence, a former Brooklyn boy, his place in the west village known as the Anson Net place. The new owner expects to occupy it about April 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams of Hopedale, Mass., have returned to town to live. Mr. Williams is to take charge of his father's farm.

Recent Fires. A few days since George Bartholomew, who runs and lives upon the Hannah Taylor farm in the west-erly part of the town, came very near being burned out. A fire from some unknown cause caught in a room of his house and when discovered had gained great headway, but by hard work was subdued, being confined to the room where discovered.

Master Robert Bard is home for a vacation from his school in Kent, Ct. Raymond Kimmoth was home over Sunday.

Miss Nellie Palmer is visiting relatives in Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving S. Frink have for their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Frink of Canterbury.

Sold Ale. Monday Joseph Belanger was brought before Clarence E. Cundall, justice of the peace, for the sale of ale to minors at the women's club. He was fined $10 and costs, taxed at $12.89.

Miss Emma Miller has returned home after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spaulding had to dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink of Canterbury.

Women's Club Meets. Monday the Women's club of Brooklyn met with Mrs. J. Sprague and Mrs. Hugh Mason read a very interesting paper on Our Nation's Wonders.

Miss Julia Layne spent the week end with her aunt in Worcester.

Mrs. Charles Place and daughter, Miss Nellie, visited relatives in Scituate Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards, who have been ill, are slowly recovering.

Mrs. E. Baker of Williamsville spent the day with her son, R. L. Kenyon.

Fred Eaton attended the automobile show in Boston Saturday on his way to Lawrence to spend the week end with his wife.

Mrs. Cora Kibbee has been called to Springfield on account of the serious illness of her brother.

Mrs. J. E. Potter called on Mrs. Thomas Bromley of Dayville on Friday.

John Madden of the Hill Crest house, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Day Kimball hospital, is doing well.

A. H. Battey has an automobile. Mr. Vapples visited in East Killingly.

Charles D. Mowry, after being confined to his home for several months, is able to be out.

ELMVILLE

After an absence of several months, Miss Clara West of Moosup and Mrs. Edith Edwards of Providence have returned to their work in Sonahill mill. The mill is now running full time.

Miss Julia Layne spent the week end with her aunt in Worcester.

Mrs. Charles Place and daughter, Miss Nellie, visited relatives in Scituate Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards, who have been ill, are slowly recovering.

Mrs. E. Baker of Williamsville spent the day with her son, R. L. Kenyon.

Fred Eaton attended the automobile show in Boston Saturday on his way to Lawrence to spend the week end with his wife.

Mrs. Cora Kibbee has been called to Springfield on account of the serious illness of her brother.

Mrs. J. E. Potter called on Mrs. Thomas Bromley of Dayville on Friday.

John Madden of the Hill Crest house, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Day Kimball hospital, is doing well.

A. H. Battey has an automobile. Mr. Vapples visited in East Killingly.

Charles D. Mowry, after being confined to his home for several months, is able to be out.

WILSONVILLE

Many Mourners at Funeral of Miss Keegan.

Miss Nellie Burke of Worcester visited the past week with Mrs. Haggerty. Mrs. Fred Mills and son, Leslie, are in Boston for several days.

Mrs. N. E. Converse of Worcester, spent the week with local relatives.

The funeral of Miss Keegan was held Monday morning at St. Louis church, Worcester. A large number attended. The flowers were given by many.

Durham was in North Webster cemetery.

Mrs. J. Upham attended an entertainment of the King's Daughters in East Thompson Wednesday, it being the annual bazaar.

An entertainment will be given in the school house Friday night.

CHAPLIN

Many Brush Fires—Iowa Visitors Start For Home.

Rev. H. C. McKnight and Mrs. McKnight are away over tomorrow (Sunday) and will visit in Coventry and Springfield, Mass.

Rev. William M. Brown of Windham will preach at the church Sunday.

There were many brush and grass fires of late and some get close to buildings before they are put out.

Miss Alice Willoughby, of Waterville, Iowa, Thursday, and will visit friends on their way in New Jersey and Washington.

An entertainment will be given in the school house Friday night.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Alfred Gendreau who is working at Howard Hill, R. I. spent Sunday at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall and their daughter, Mrs. E. Barber and Mr. E. Kenyon, motored to Richmond, R. I. Thursday and called on friends.

It is expected that Rev. Sherman J. Gore of Waterville will preach here on Sunday in exchange with the local pastor.

Mr. G. W. Edgerly was a visitor in Sturbridge recently.

Mrs. Fred Dexter entertained the Willing Workers at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Curtis of Hopkinton is visiting her mother, Mrs. Pebebe's heart.

Miss Anna Deane spent the week end at "The Oaks."

WESTFORD.

Henry Eastman, who has been visiting friends in Worcester, returned home Sunday.

Ruth Leslie and Roy Barlow, and Miss Florence March, spent Sunday at the Barlow home.

Mrs. Ralph Thompson and little daughter, Joyce, of Southbridge, are at Mrs. Jennie Barlow's for a week.

The funeral of Arthur Burill was held at the Baptist church Friday at 2 o'clock with burial in the village cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lawson and children, of Williamstown, were in the village on Wednesday.

Arthur Blair is working in Woodstock, R. I. He will be home Sunday.

Jim Baker was in Worcester the first of the week, visiting his mother.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

The programme at the Seneca grange was in charge of the Shamrock committee Wednesday night and consisted of songs and recitations.

Mrs. Jonas Lawson and daughter, Florence, are visiting in South Woodstock.

Charles Wilson has purchased the Shaw place and takes possession this week.

Herbert Wilson has been ill with a bad cold.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

A dancing class was held at West Woodstock, Wednesday evening.

Harold D. Bloom visited his brother in New Haven over Sunday.

It was Parents' day at District No. 9 Thursday.

"7"

FOR GRIP, INFLUENZA, COUGHS, SORE THROAT

COUGHS

To get the best results, take Dr. Humphreys' "Seventy-seven" at the first feeling of a cold, lassitude, a chill, or a shiver.

Don't wait till your bones ache, till you cough and sneeze, have sore throat and influenza or it may take longer.

Pleasant to take, handy to carry, fits the vest pocket.

25c. and $1.00, at all druggists or mailed.

Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., 156 William Street, New York.

EKONK

Pastor Addresses Men's Club—Pageant Services.

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Stanton are spending a few days at the Stanton home in Natick, Mass.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds gave a fine address on Citizenship before the Men's club of Dayville Monday. He was entertained at Mr. Gregg's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gallup spent Tuesday in Hartford. Mr. Gallup has been appointed administrator of his brother's estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes who were married last Thursday, will go to housekeeping in Griswold.

Edwin Gallup spent Sunday in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Frink have moved to Mr. Griffith's house on the Sterling road.

Descon Tanner is ill.

Earl Davis has moved his steam mill to Flat Rock and will saw for Herbert Gallup.

Whist and Social. A social and whist party was held in Grange hall last Friday evening.

Miss Cooper attended a teachers' meeting in Sterling Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Benjamin Wilcox purchased seven houses in Voluntown.

Seventh in Pageant Services. The seventh of the pageant services was held Sunday evening and was very much enjoyed by the large congregation.

Miss Gladys Gallup being especially pleasing. Miss Cooper as the spirit of Jerusalem interpreted the part very effectively, the long monologue being especially difficult.

The descriptions of the Temple of Diana, the various tribes, the nature of the population, the culture, the art, and literature at the time of the appearance of Jesus, were ably given.

Frank Barnes and Timothy, detailed his youth, his training and the coming to Lystra, his home, of Paul and Barnabas, the mob that stoned Paul and dragged him for dead outside the city. His conversation and despatches to the gray man were well told.

Earl N. Gallup and Demetrius stirred up the Ephesian mob, against Paul. It was well done. The music was very good and the whole service uplifting and inspiring.

Miss Maude Tanner as the spirit of Carthage, with her sword and shield, told of the fall of the city. Miss Julia Sayles will give the poem.

St. Paul will be brought before Festus and will make his defense of the faith he embraces and everywhere declares. John Tanner, Bernard West, G. Howard Gallup, King Agrippa and Miss G. Howard Gallup Bernice. Maids to the queen, Miss Florence Gallup and Lena Sayles, Soldiers, Dimes and Lloyd Frink, Lloyd and Henry Congdon.

Recent Super Nets $11—No More Permits for Kindling Fires in the Open.

Henry Pringle having purchased a new place in Hartford, will move there soon.

William Anthony has been spending a few days with relatives in South Windham.

Mrs. Charles Brown of Windham was a visitor in town recently.

Charles Russell is making repairs on his house.

Harold Kenyon returned to school this week, after an illness of two weeks.

Orson Sweet and Charles Gager recently returned from Fall River, where they have been working this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jenrick and daughter have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Mott, for several days.

At the supper given by the Ladies Aid society last week, the proceeds were $11. Charles Gager was awarded the town fire warden.

Harry P. Chesbro, has received instructions from the Fire Department to reduce the danger of forest fire.

Miss Sadie Kimball and daughter, turned from the hospital last Saturday.

Going to Canada. Carroll Foss who has been in Boston several months was a visitor here Wednesday, where he formerly lived. He is going to Canada.

Mrs. Everett Ladd is confined to her home by illness.

Miss Clara Northrup has returned from Moosup, where she has been assisting in the family of Albert Kennedy's illness.

Motorman Thomas Weaver was off duty Wednesday on account of illness.

George Russell has returned from a visit at his home at Stafford Springs.

Mrs. Ernest L. French has been spending a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Henry Tripp in Danielson.

Fitch A. Carey has been visiting his brother, George L. Carey in Norwich.

Tea Follows Work. The King's Daughters met at their rooms Monday afternoon. A five o'clock tea was served.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

Henry Northrup of Westerly visited at Andrew Northrup's Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barber has returned to her home, having spent the winter at John Eaton's in Wauregan.

Mrs. J. J. French and her family, Miss Clara French of Providence were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. French's brother-in-law, George O. Gaddis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Williams and daughter of Williamstown are visiting Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. John L. Chapman.

</